2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Investment banking

Investment banking includes fees earned from debt underwriting. The Company accounts for the fees earned from debt underwriting in accordance with ASC 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (“ASC 606”). The Company acts as an underwriter and earns revenue, which can include management fees, sales concessions, and underwriting fees. ASC 606 prescribes that fee revenue relating to underwriting commitments is recognized when all significant items relating to the underwriting cycle have been completed and the amount of the underwriting revenue has been determined. Generally, this would occur on trade date, when the deal is launched into the primary market. Investment banking revenues are presented gross of transaction related expenses and are recognized when the Company satisfies the performance obligation.

Investment banking fees receivable of $748 at March 31, 2022 is reported in receivables from broker dealers and clearing organizations on the Statement of Financial Condition.

Income taxes

The Company accounts for income taxes in accordance with ASC 740, Income Taxes (“ASC 740”). ASC 740 prescribes the method to account for uncertainty in income tax positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return by applying a “more likely than not” (“MLTN”) criteria as to whether a tax position will be sustained upon examination, based on the technical merits of the position. Accordingly, the Company assesses this likelihood based on the facts, circumstances, and information available at the end of each period. A tax position that meets the MLTN recognition threshold is measured initially and subsequently as the largest amount of tax benefit that will likely be realized upon settlement with a taxing authority that has full knowledge of all the relevant information. The measurement of unrecognized tax benefits is adjusted when new information is available, or when an event occurs that requires a change. Deferred tax expenses or benefits are recognized in the Statement of Financial Condition at amounts expected to be realized for the changes in deferred tax liabilities (“DTLs”) or assets (“DTAs”) between years. The Company recognizes the current and deferred tax consequences of all transactions in the Statement of Financial Condition using the provisions of the currently enacted tax laws.

Deferred income taxes reflect the net tax effects of temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the amounts used for income tax purposes. At March 31, 2022, the Company had $174 of deferred tax assets, which related primarily to timing differences for net operating losses (“NOL”). The NOL carryforward balance of $598 is for Canadian tax purposes and will expire beginning in 2039 ($158 in 2039 and $440 in 2040). The Company has a valuation allowance of $174, an increase of $3 from the prior year, which fully offsets the DTA as the Company believes it is more likely than not that the DTA will not be realized.

The Company had no unrecognized tax benefits at March 31, 2022. As of March 31, 2022, management does not believe that there were any positions for which it is reasonably possible that the total amount of unrecognized tax benefits will significantly change within the next 12 months. The Company's income tax returns for the tax years ended March 31, 2019 and March 31, 2020 remain subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service for U.S. federal tax purposes, the state and local tax authorities, and the Canada Revenue Agency for Canadian tax purposes.

5. Risk Management

Risk is an inherent part of the Company's business and activities. The Company has established risk management policies and procedures to measure and monitor each of the various types of significant risks involved in its underwriting business. The Company's ability to properly and effectively identify, assess, monitor, and manage its risk is critical to the overall execution of the Company's strategy and its profitability.

Risk management at the Company requires independent Company-level oversight. Effective risk practices are carried out through constant communication, exercise of professional judgement, and knowledge of specialized products and markets. The Company's senior management takes an active role in the identification, assessment, and management of risks at the Company level.

Market Risk – Market risk is the potential loss the Company may incur as a result of changes in the market value of a particular instrument. The Company manages market risk by economically hedging its exposure to risk factors if necessary. In 2021, there were no such contracts entered into or outstanding.

Credit Risk – Credit risk is the risk of loss resulting from a counterparty's failure to meet its obligations. The Company is engaged in underwriting activities with counterparties primarily in the financial services industry. In the event counterparties do not fulfill their obligations, the Company may be exposed to risk of loss. The risk of default mainly depends on the creditworthiness of the counterparty or issuer of the instrument. There was no credit risk that had a material impact on the Company's Statement of Financial Condition.

Mizuho Securities Canada Inc.

(In Thousands of U.S. dollars)

5. Risk Management (continued)

Operational Risk – Operational risk is the risk of loss, whether direct or indirect, to which the Company is exposed due to inadequate or failed internal processes or systems, human error or misconduct, or external events. Operational risk includes legal and regulatory risk, business process and change risk, fiduciary or disclosure breaches, technology failure, financial crime, and environmental risk, but excludes strategic and reputational risk. Operational risk, in some form exists in each of the Company’s business and support activities, and can result in financial loss, regulatory sanctions and damage to the Company’s reputation. There was no operational risk that had a material impact on the Company’s Statement of Financial Condition.

6. Fair Value Measurement

ASC 820 defines fair value as “the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date” or an “exit price”. The objective of a fair value measurement is to determine this exit price.

The valuation techniques used to measure fair value must maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs, using techniques that are appropriate and for which sufficient data is available. Additionally, for inputs based on bid and ask prices, the price within the bid-ask spread that is most representative of fair value is used to measure fair value.

Fair value hierarchy

ASC 820 prioritizes the inputs used to measure fair value into three broad levels, assigning the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets and liabilities (Level 1 measurements) and the lowest to unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurements). If the inputs used to measure an asset or liability fall into different levels within the hierarchy, the categorization is based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement.

The three categories are as follows:

Level 1: Assets and liabilities whose values are based on unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities. The Company did not have any Level 1 assets or liabilities at March 31, 2022.

Level 2: Assets and liabilities whose values are based on inputs that are observable either directly or indirectly, but do not qualify as Level 1 inputs. Level 2 assets include Canadian Treasury bills. The Company did not have any Level 2 liabilities at March 31, 2022.

Mizuho Securities Canada Inc.

(In Thousands of U.S. dollars)

Level 3: Assets and liabilities, whose values are based on inputs that are both unobservable and significant to the overall fair value measurement. The Company did not have any assets or liabilities measured at fair value using unobservable inputs or for which unobservable inputs were significant to their fair value measurement at March 31, 2022.

In determining the appropriate measurement levels, the Company performs analyses on the assets and liabilities subject to ASC 820 at the end of each reporting period. Changes in the observability of significant valuation inputs during the reporting period may result in a reclassification of certain assets and liabilities within the fair value hierarchy.

At March 31, 2022, there were $15,796 of Canadian Treasury bills assigned as Level 2 securities, using the above fair value hierarchy.

Valuation techniques

Other sovereign obligations are measured at fair value by using observable bid offer markets from active dealers or benchmarking spreads to curves based on the risk of the issuer. Accordingly, these securities are categorized in Level 2 of the fair value hierarchy.

Financial assets and liabilities not measured at fair value

Other financial instruments are recorded by the Company at contract amounts and include cash and cash equivalents, receivables from brokers, dealers, and clearing organizations and payables to affiliates. All financial instruments carried at contract amounts either have short-term maturities (one year or less), or bear market interest rates and, accordingly, are carried at amounts approximating fair value.

7. Commitments and Contingencies

Underwriting Commitments

In the normal course of business, the Company enters into underwriting commitments. There were no open commitments at March 31, 2022.

Mizuho Securities Canada Inc.

(In Thousands of U.S. dollars)

7. Commitments and Contingencies (continued)

Litigation

In accordance with the provisions of ASC 450, Contingencies (“ASC 450”), the Company accrues for a litigation-related liability when the assessed likelihood of realizing a future loss is probable and the amount of loss can be reasonably estimated. In applying these principles, the information available may indicate that the estimated amount of loss is within a range of amounts. When an amount within a range of loss is identified as the most likely result within the range, that amount is accrued by the Company. It is the opinion of management, after consultation with counsel, that there are no matters pending against the Company that could have a material adverse effect on the Company’s financial condition.

8. Regulatory Requirements

As a broker-dealer, the Company is subject to the SEC’s Uniform Net Capital Rule 15c3-1 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (“Rule 15c3-1”), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital in accordance with a formula set forth therein. The Company is required to maintain net capital, as defined, at the greater of $100 or 6-2/3% of aggregate indebtedness under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. At March 31, 2022, the Company had net capital of $18,932, which was $18,832 in excess of its $100 requirement. The Company had no obligations under Rule 15c3-3 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 at March 31, 2022.

9. Subsequent Events

Under the provisions of ASC 855, Subsequent Events (“ASC 855”), companies are required to evaluate events and transactions that occur after the balance sheet date but before the date the Statement of Financial Condition is issued, or available to be issued in the case of non-public entities. As such, the Company is required to evaluate and recognize in the Statement of Financial Condition the effect of all events or transactions that provide additional evidence of conditions that existed at the balance sheet date, including estimates inherent in the Statement of Financial Condition’s preparation.

The Company evaluated events subsequent to March 31, 2022 through May 19, 2022, the date on which the Statement of Financial Condition were available to be issued. There were no material recognizable or non-recognizable subsequent events during this period.
