

To prepare for growth and development in the 21st century, in April 1999 DKB implemented a medium-term corporate plan. The principal objective of the new plan is for DKB to become a strong, reliable, and highly valued financial institution with a sound financial position that is fully capable of earning the enduring trust of customers, shareholders, the market, and society as a whole.