Forward-looking Statements

This presentation contains statements that constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the United States Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, including estimates, forecasts, targets and plans. Such forward-looking statements do not represent any guarantee by management of future performance. In many cases, but not all, we use such words as "aim," "anticipate," "believe," "endeavor," "estimate," "expect," "intend," "may," "plan," "probability," "project," "risk," "seek," "should," "strive," "target" and similar expressions in relation to us or our management to identify forward-looking statements. You can also identify forward-looking statements by discussions of strategy, plans or intentions. These statements reflect our current views with respect to future events and are subject to risks, uncertainties and assumptions.

We may not be successful in implementing our business strategies, and management may fail to achieve its targets, for a wide range of possible reasons, including, without limitation: incurrence of significant credit-related costs; declines in the value of our securities portfolio; changes in interest rates; foreign currency fluctuations; decrease in the market liquidity of our assets; revised assumptions or other changes related to our pension plans; a decline in our deferred tax assets; the effect of financial transactions entered into for hedging and other similar purposes; failure to maintain required capital adequacy ratio levels; downgrades in our credit ratings; our ability to avoid reputational harm; our ability to implement our Medium-term Business Plan, realize the synergy effects of 'One MIZUHO' and implement other strategic initiatives and measures effectively; the effectiveness of our operational, legal and other risk management policies; the effect of changes in general economic conditions in Japan and elsewhere; and changes to applicable laws and regulations.

Further information regarding factors that could affect our financial condition and results of operations is included in "Item 3.D. Key Information—Risk Factors" and "Item 5. Operating and Financial Review and Prospects" in our most recent Form 20-F filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and our report on Form 6-K furnished to the SEC on January 27th, 2014, both of which are available in the Financial Information section of our web page at www.mizuho-fg.co.jp/english/ and also at the SEC's web site at www.sec.gov.

We do not intend to update our forward-looking statements. We are under no obligation, and disclaim any obligation, to update or alter our forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, except as may be required by the rules of the Tokyo Stock Exchange.

1. Major Risk Types and Management

■ Mizuho Financial Group (the group) classifies its risk exposures according to the various kinds of risk, including credit risk, market risk, liquidity risk and operational risk, and manages each type of risk according to its characteristics.

Risk Type	Definition	Management Structure, etc.
Credit Risk	 The risk of losses that may be incurred due to a decline in, or total loss of, the value of assets (including off-balance-sheet instruments), as a result of deterioration in obligors' financial position 	 Adopting two different but mutually complementary approaches; "credit management," in which we manage the process for each individual transaction and individual obligor, and "credit portfolio management," in which we utilize statistical methods to assess the potential for losses related to credit risk
Market Risk	 The risk of losses incurred by the group due to fluctuations in interest rates, stock prices and foreign exchange rates The risk of losses incurred when it becomes impossible to execute transactions in the market because of market confusion or losses arising from transactions at prices that are significantly less favorable than usual 	 Setting limits for VaR and for losses Setting position limits based on interest rate sensitivity as needed, for banking activities
Liquidity Risk	The risk of losses arising from funding difficulties due to a deterioration in our financial position that makes it difficult for us to raise necessary funds or that forces us to raise funds at significantly higher interest rates than usual	 Measuring liquidity risk using indices pertaining to cash flow, such as limits on funds raised in the market Establishing classifications for the cash flow conditions affecting the group, ranging from "normal" to "cause for concern" and "critical," and establishing procedures for dealing with cases which are deemed to fall into the "cause for concern" or "critical" categories (in addition, establishing a plan of operations so that we may respond swiftly in emergency situations)
Operational Risk	The risk of loss that the group may incur resulting from inadequate or failed internal processes, people and systems or from external events	 Determining risk management policies concerning risk management structures and methods for each kind of risk, with recognition that operational risk includes information technology risk, operations risk, legal risk, human resources risk, tangible asset risk, regulatory change risk and reputational risk Measuring operational risk (Operational VaR) on a regular basis

(Note)

"Change from Mar.13" of BK is based on a comparison with simple aggregate figures of former BK (the Basel II Domestic Standard) and former CB (the Basel III International Standard) as of March 31, 2013

- Total RWA of FG (consolidated) as of March 31, 2014 was JPY 60.2Tn
 - Credit Risk was JPY 54.0Tn, constituting about 90% of total RWA
 - Total RWA of BK (consolidated) as of March 31, 2014 was JPY 52.8Tn, constituting about 90% of total RWA
 - Total RWA of FG (consolidated) increased by JPY 1.4Tn from March 31, 2013 (see page 6 for details)
 - Total RWA of BK (consolidated) decreased mainly because SC, formerly a subsidiary of BK, became FG's directly-owned subsidiary in the first half of FY2013

Major factors of decrease / increase

- Due to the depreciation of the Japanese yen and other factors, amounts of Outstanding Balances increased for both domestic and overseas
- Due to improved obligor classifications achieved through our business revitalization support to corporate customers and other factors, amounts of Non-Accrual Past Due & Restructured Loans decreased for both domestic and overseas

⁽Note1) Amounts of Outstanding Balances are the aggregate figures for banking and trust accounts, and amount of Non-Accrual, Past Due & Restructured Loans are the aggregate figures for banking and trust accounts with contracts indemnifying the principal amounts.

⁽Note2) "Status of Loans by Region" is based on the location of its head office.

⁽Note 1) All securities included in the table above have fair value.

1. Liquid Assets held in our group

- Our group holds plentiful liquid assets, including central bank reserves and government bonds.
- Our group keeps abundant amounts of liquid assets to turn into cash for contingency funding plans even after excluding encumbered assets such as those pledged as collateral.

2. Basel III Liquidity Regulation

 Our group holds adequate high-quality liquid assets required by liquidity regulation.

<Outline of Liquidity Regulation (LCR) >

- LCR (Liquidity Coverage Ratio) will be introduced as planned on 2015 as a Pillar I requirement of Basel III liquidity regulation.
- After LCR is in effect, we will be required to hold a certain amount of high-quality liquid assets as reserves to meet cash outflows anticipated during a 30 days stress period.

⁽Note 2) Portion pledged as collateral mainly consists of securities and others collateralized for borrowed money, foreign and domestic exchange transactions or derivatives transactions, or substituted for margins for futures transactions.

4. Liquidity Risk (2) Status of Funding

Composition of Funding tools

Our funding sources are mostly deposits and certificates of deposits. We have funded medium-to-long-term cash needs mainly by issuing securities.
