 - (a) that the Customer shall furnish the Bank with a written explanation to its satisfaction as to the cause of the loss, theft or destruction of the deposit slip; and
 - (b) that the Customer shall provide the Bank with an indemnity in form and substance acceptable to the Bank.

2. FIXED DEPOSIT ACCOUNTS AND ASIAN CURRENCY UNIT FIXED DEPOSIT ACCOUNTS

- 2.1 Fixed deposit transactions will only be accepted by the Bank on a Business Day. The Bank reserves the right not to accept fixed deposits in any specified currency.
- 2.2 A deposit slip ("Fixed Deposit Confirmation") will be given for each fixed deposit of the Customer (the "Customer's Fixed Deposit") placed with the Bank and Clauses 1.2 and 1.3 will apply in relation to each Fixed Deposit Confirmation.
- 2.3 Interest will accrue on the Customer's Fixed Deposit for the period commencing on its value date or the value date referred to in the Fixed Deposit Confirmation issued by the Bank in respect of such Customer's Fixed Deposit, whichever is the later, and up to and including the day before the maturity date referred to in such Fixed Deposit Confirmation, at the rate specified in such Fixed Deposit Confirmation and thereafter, for each subsequent period in respect of which such Customer's Fixed Deposit is renewed, at the Bank's rate applicable to fixed deposits in the relevant amount and currency prevailing on the date on which such Customer's Fixed Deposit is renewed.

The Customer may not withdraw the amount of such Customer's Fixed Deposit (whether in whole or in part) before such maturity date. Upon the expiry of the period ending on the first maturity date, and upon each subsequent maturity date, such Customer's Fixed Deposit will, at the Bank's option, automatically be renewed for a like period commencing on such maturity date unless the Bank receives from the Customer written notice to the contrary, in the case of an Asian Currency Unit ("ACU") Customer's Fixed Deposit, at least two (2) Business Days before such maturity date, or, in the case of a Customer's Fixed Deposit in Singapore Dollars, on or before such maturity date (provided always that if such maturity date is not a Business Day, notice is to be given on the Business Day immediately before such maturity date). Where such written notice has been given in accordance herewith, the amount of such Customer's Fixed Deposit may be withdrawn at its maturity.
- 2.5 In the event of renewal of a Customer's Fixed Deposit upon the first maturity date and upon each subsequent maturity date (where applicable), unless the Customer expressly requests otherwise, the interest accrued up to the first maturity date or each subsequent maturity date (as the case may be) will be added to the balance of the Customer's Fixed Deposit at the expiration of the relevant period and in such case, the Customer's Fixed Deposit balance will be so increased by the amount of such interest for the purposes of the subsequent period of the Customer's Fixed Deposit.
- 2.6 Notwithstanding Clause 2.4, the Customer may request the Bank to permit the amount of the Customer's Fixed Deposit to be withdrawn prior to the maturity date thereof, by submitting a duly signed written withdrawal request in form and substance satisfactory to the Bank. Customers are cautioned that early withdrawal of any Customer's Fixed Deposit may result in the original principal amount being reduced. Where such request has been made the Bank may, in its sole and absolute discretion and on such terms as it thinks fit, allow or permit such withdrawal subject to the Customer paying a fee of such amount as the Bank may in its sole discretion deem fit and the Bank being entitled to withhold or forfeit any interest accrued on the Customer's Fixed Deposit. - 3.1 All Instruments denominated in any currency other than any Instrument received and accepted by the Bank for collection for an account will be credited to the account only after the Bank receives payment of the collection amounts of such Instrument. The Bank may credit the amount of any Instrument drawn on any bank in Singapore to the account when deposited with the Bank but the amount so credited will not constitute the available balance on the account before the Bank has collected and received payment on the Instrument and the Bank shall be entitled to debit the account in respect of the amount credited if such Instrument is dishonoured.
- 3.2 The Bank may at any time and at its sole discretion refuse to collect or accept for collection any Instrument made payable to a person or persons who is not or are not the Customer (each such Instrument herein called a "Third Party Instrument"), whether or not the Third Party Instrument bears any indorsement. A Third Party Instrument bearing multiple indorsements will not normally be accepted by the Bank for collection unless the Bank has expressly agreed to do so in the case of that specific Third Party Instrument. In each case where any Third Party Instrument is accepted by the Bank for collection such acceptance is made without any liability whatsoever on the part of the Bank and the Customer shall bear full responsibility for the correctness, authenticity and validity of all indorsements on Third Party Instruments, and the Customer hereby agrees to indemnify the Bank against all loss, damage, liability, costs and expenses which the Bank may suffer or incur by reason of any defect in the Customer's title to any Third Party Instrument or the incorrectness, invalidity or lack of authenticity of any indorsement on any Third Party Instrument.

- 3.4 All Instruments deposited with the Bank for collection are received by the Bank for collection as agent of the Customer, and the Bank may at its absolute discretion refuse to accept for collection any Instrument tendered for deposit. In the absence of any express agreement in writing by the Bank to the contrary, the Bank's acceptance of any Instrument for collection is made upon the condition that the Bank may, without any liability on its part and at any time in its sole discretion, (i) route each such Instrument by mail or otherwise, directly or indirectly, for collection to the drawer, drawee, indorser or other payee, through any of the Bank's branches or correspondents for handling subject to and in accordance with their respective rules and regulations and for payment in cash, bank draft or otherwise, (ii) return any dishonoured Instrument to the Customer at the Customer's address as last notified to the Bank, at the risk and expense of the Customer, and (iii) refrain from presenting, demanding, collecting or giving notice of non-payment or dishonour with respect to any such Instrument on any Saturday, Sunday, public holiday or bank holiday. However, the amount of any Instrument drawn on or payable by the Bank at any of its branches or otherwise may be debited from the relevant account of the Customer with the Bank at any time and on any day (including, without limitation, on a Saturday, Sunday, public holiday or bank holiday), unless full and final payment in cash or its equivalent shall have been received by the Bank at its branch in Singapore irrespective of whether or not such Instrument is returned to the Customer.
- 3.5 All Instruments accepted by the Bank for collection and credit to an account are received by the Bank subject to the following conditions:
- (a) any correspondent, Agent or intermediary selected by the Bank and through which the Bank routes any such Instrument for collection shall be deemed to be the agent of the Customer and the Bank shall not be liable to the Customer for any loss or damage caused by any act, neglect or default of such correspondent, Agent or intermediary;
 - (b) the Bank's rights against the Customer in relation to any item shall not be prejudiced by (a) loss, mutilation or dishonour of such item, (b) any proceedings taken thereon by the Bank, or (c) the entering into an arrangement (which is hereby authorised by the Customer) with any third party;
 - (c) the Bank shall not be responsible for any failure or delay in crediting an account, whether arising from (but not limited to) (i) any countermand or stop payment instructions, (ii) loss through the mail, (iii) late, or failure of, presentation, demand, collection or giving of notice of non-payment or (iv) dishonour of any item, voucher or statement; and

4. INSTRUMENTS, CHEQUE BOOKS & STOP PAYMENTS

- 4.1 The Customer shall not draw any Instrument on the Bank or on any account except in the form and on such paper printed in accordance with such specifications as the Bank may prescribe or in the form and on paper provided by the Bank to the Customer for that purpose and the Bank shall be entitled to dishonour any Instrument which is drawn in contravention of this provision.
- 4.2 Cheque books are available only for use with current accounts (or such other accounts as the Bank may from time to time decide) and no withdrawal may be made by cheque against any other type of account. Applications for cheque books received by the Bank must be in form and substance satisfactory to the Bank. For the avoidance of doubt, the Bank reserves the right not to issue cheque books to the Customer for any account(s).
- 4.3 At the written request and expense of the Customer, the Bank may despatch cheque books to the Customer by registered or ordinary mail. For cheque books despatched by registered mail, the Bank may, at its discretion, levy such necessary fees and charges as it may in its sole discretion deem fit. The Bank will not be liable for any possible risks or losses associated with the method of despatch or collection, including loss of any cheque book(s). The Customer agrees to observe all rules or terms printed on the cheque book or as the Bank may inform the Customer from time to time.

- 4.4 Cheques and other Instruments drawn by the Customer must be so drawn as to prevent additions and alterations after issue, and in particular, all blank spaces on cheques must be legibly completed and the word "only" should be added after the amount in words. All alterations and/or additions must be confirmed by the full signature(s) of the signatory(ies) and such signature(s) shall be conclusive evidence as against the Customer that such alterations and/or additions are duly authorised by the Customer. If precautions are not taken by the Customer to prevent forgery or alteration of any cheque or other Instrument drawn on an account of the Customer, the Bank will not be responsible or liable for the consequences and shall not be liable to the Customer for any expense, loss, damage or liability whatsoever which the Customer may incur or suffer by reason of any such forgery or alteration.
- 4.5 Cheques and other Instruments must be duly signed in accordance with the specimen signature(s) and the mandate or authorisation provided by the Customer to the Bank. The Bank does not undertake to verify the authenticity of any indorsement on any cheque or other Instrument drawn to order or to ascertain or verify the identity of any indorser, and the Bank shall have the right at any time in its sole discretion to refuse payment of cheques or other Instruments bearing any indorsements and drawn on an account. The Customer will assume full responsibility for the correctness and validity of all indorsements appearing on cheques or other Instruments drawn on each account of the Customer.
- 4.6 The Bank may mark as "good for payment" any cheque drawn on an account, and the account may be debited immediately with the amount of the cheque so marked and thereafter payment on the marked cheque cannot be stopped.
- 4.7 The Customer is responsible for the safekeeping of its cheques and in the event that any cheques are mislaid, lost or stolen, the Customer must forthwith inform the Bank of the same.
- 4.8 If the Customer desires to stop payment on any cheque or other Instrument, complete written instructions and information fully identifying the cheque or Instrument, including (a) the cheque or Instrument number, (b) the date of the cheque or Instrument, (c) the payee's name, and (d) the amount of the cheque or Instrument, should be notified to the Bank. Stop payment instructions for blank cheques which have been lost, stolen or mislaid shall be carried out by the Bank in such manner as the Bank may at its sole discretion require or deem fit. The Bank will record any order stopping payment of cheques or other Instruments only (i) after a letter duly signed by the Customer in accordance with the specimen signature(s) provided to the Bank has been duly received during regular banking hours at the counters of the Bank at which the relevant account is maintained; and (ii) if such cheque or Instrument has not been presented, and the Bank shall not be responsible for any loss caused by any oversight by the Bank or its officers. Stop payment instructions received otherwise than in writing duly signed by the Customer will not be binding on the Bank, and the Bank shall not be obliged to act in accordance with any such unwritten instructions or instructions not duly signed as aforesaid provided that the Bank may, at its sole discretion, without any obligation to do so and/or without undertaking any liability by doing so, accept verbal instructions to stop payments. The Customer will also complete and execute any further documentation required by the Bank in connection with such instructions.
- 4.9 The Customer irrevocably and unconditionally agrees (a) to indemnify and at all times keep the Bank indemnified against any expense, loss, damage or liability whatsoever which may be incurred or suffered by the Bank as a result of any payment or non-payment by the Bank of any cheque or other Instrument referred to in any stop payment or countermand instructions of the Customer, (b) that while the Bank will use its best endeavours to carry out the Customer's instructions, it will not be liable for any failure to do so howsoever arising, and, in particular, the Bank shall not be responsible for any loss or damage which may arise if a cheque or other Instrument is paid prior to the instruction to stop payment being actually received by the Bank, (c) to notify the Bank promptly in writing if the relevant cheque or other Instrument is recovered or destroyed, or if such instructions are otherwise revoked or cancelled and (d) that for stop payment or countermand instructions involving cheques or other Instruments which are dated, such instructions will automatically lapse six (6) months from the date of the relevant cheque or other Instrument or date of receipt of such instructions from the Customer, whichever is later, and for undated cheques or other Instruments, the instructions will lapse one (1) year from the date the instructions were received from the Customer. The Bank may at its absolute discretion vary the stated validity period of any such instructions.

The Bank may (but it is not bound to) comply with requests from the Customer that such withdrawals be payable in a currency ("foreign currency") other than Singapore Dollars or in specific cash denominations. Any withdrawals requested by the Customer to be made in a foreign currency shall be payable only (i) by means of telegraphic or electronic transfer to, or by issuing drafts drawn on, a financial institution selected by the Bank, (ii) (for withdrawals in United States Dollars or Japanese Yen only) on presentation of a cheque issued by the Customer and drawn on an account of the Customer with the Bank, or (iii) by such other means as the Bank may in its sole discretion determine.

Except with the prior written consent of the Bank, no withdrawal request or order may be made otherwise than in writing and signed in accordance with specimen signatures and mandates or authorisations notified to and received by the Bank in respect of the relevant account. Any arrangements entered into with the Bank for withdrawal requests or orders to be otherwise than in writing shall be at the sole risk of the Customer and the Bank shall not be liable for any loss, damage, liability, cost or expense incurred or suffered by the Customer in connection with or as a consequence of such arrangements or as a result of the Bank relying or acting on any unwritten withdrawal requests or orders, in respect of which the Customer shall indemnify the Bank against any loss, damage, liability, cost or expense which the Bank may incur or suffer.
- 5.3 Any request or order given by or on behalf of the Customer to the Bank for a transfer of any sum or sums from the Customer's account to another account (whether of the Customer or any other person) shall, once given, be irrevocable, and the Bank, in its sole discretion and without any liability on its part, may (but shall not be obliged to) refuse to accept, acknowledge or act on any purported revocation, cancellation, amendment or variation of or to such request or order. The Customer agrees to indemnify the Bank against any loss, damage, liability, cost or expense which the Bank may suffer or incur in connection with any such purported revocation, cancellation, amendment or variation, whether or not accepted, acknowledged or acted on by the Bank.

- 5.4 Amounts of cheques and other Instruments deposited for collection shall not be available for withdrawal until the proceeds thereof have actually been collected by the Bank.
- 5.5 If at any time the Bank is in receipt of several requests or orders given by or on behalf of the Customer for withdrawal, transfer and/or payment of sums from or out of an account, and the aggregate of the sums specified in such requests or orders exceeds the total amount at such time available for withdrawal, transfer and/or payment from or out of such account, the Bank shall be entitled to select in its sole discretion which request(s) or order(s) to execute or which request(s) or order(s) to refrain from executing, without reference to the date or time of the making or receipt of any such request(s) or order(s). The Bank shall not be liable to the Customer for any loss, damage, liability, cost or expense suffered or incurred by the Customer in relation to or as a result of such selection or exercise of such discretion by the Bank.
- 5.6 The Bank will not entertain any request for partial payment of any Instrument notwithstanding that there are sufficient funds in the Customer's account.
- 5.7 No account may be overdrawn except with the prior written consent of the Bank. Any debit balance on the account shall be payable by the Customer to the Bank on demand. The Customer shall also on demand pay any accrued interest, bank charges and commissions chargeable on such debit balance at the Bank's applicable rates prevailing at the relevant time. - 8.2 The Bank assumes no liability in respect of any of the foregoing including, without limitation, for any diminution in the value of funds in the Customer's account(s) due to taxes or depreciation or for the unavailability of such funds on maturity due to restrictions on convertibility, requisition, involuntary transfers, distraints of any kind, exercise of governmental or military powers, war, strikes or other causes beyond the Bank's control.

The Bank shall be entitled (but shall not be obliged) to record any oral communication between itself and the Customer and, in the event of a dispute as to the content of such communication, any such recording shall be conclusive evidence of the content of such communication.

- (b) the relevant correspondent bank, paying bank or agent bank should at any time claim refund and repayment of such inward remittance on any ground (whether disputed or not),

and the Customer shall be responsible for all losses, costs, expenses and charges incurred or suffered by the Bank arising as a result thereof and shall indemnify the Bank for all losses, costs, expenses and charges incurred or suffered by the Bank in relation thereto.

For the avoidance of doubt and without prejudice, any reversal of any inward remittance pursuant to this General Terms will constitute a withdrawal and any withdrawal before maturity and such reversal of any inward remittance will be on such terms as the Bank may impose.

13. STATEMENT OF ACCOUNT AND CUSTOMER'S DUTY

- 13.1 The Bank will furnish the Customer with periodic statements relating to an account (each such statement herein called a "Statement of Account"). Notwithstanding the aforesaid, the Bank may at any time rectify errors or omissions in any Statement or Account and any statement or advice so rectified shall be binding on the Customer. The Bank has the right to demand refund of and/or debit any account of the Customer with the Bank for any overpayment into the account(s) arising from such errors or omissions.
- 13.3 Notwithstanding any Statement of Account, any statement or advice sent by the Bank to the Customer, the Bank shall have the right to reverse any entry, demand refund of and/or debit the account in respect of any overpayment or wrongful credit into the account.
