

FOR GENERAL RELEASE*Expansion of Business at Yangon Representative Office

Mizuho Corporate Bank, Ltd. (MHCB; Yasuhiro Sato, President & CEO) today renewed its Yangon Representative Office in the city of Yangon in the Republic of the Union of Myanmar. The renewal expands the range of business able to be handled in terms of Japanese law, based on a new license that we recently obtained.

Myanmar has a wealth of natural resources and a high-quality labor force, and there are also high expectations on the consumer market for its population of approximately 60 million people. We are projecting further economic growth in Myanmar going forward as a member of ASEAN and a country in the Greater Mekong Sub-region, which has been attracting increasing world attention in recent years.

MHCB established a representative office in Yangon in April, 2012 and we have been using this office to provide information related to Myanmar to our customers. On the back of the steady increase in customers considering entering the Myanmar market or expanding their businesses there, we have taken the opportunity to renew the Yangon Representative Office and expand the range of business we are able to handle.

By establishing a local business promotion framework in Myanmar, MHCB and other group companies including Mizuho Bank, Ltd. will unite in further strengthening our customer support structure, including responding to individual customer needs, and expand our office network in the ASEAN and Greater Mekong Regions.
