

Opening of the Santiago Representative Office

Mizuho Bank, Ltd. (MHBK; Nobuhide Hayashi, President and CEO) opened a representative office in Santiago in the Republic of Chile on September 22, 2014.

Chile is one of the two OECD countries in Latin America, together with Mexico, and it has recorded continuous high growth in recent years based on its rich natural resources, stable business environment, and open trade policy. The latest OECD forecast predicts average annual growth of 4.4% over the next 15 years. Also, because of Chile's strong economy, commercial trade activity originating from the country is continuing to spread across the region, further enhancing its role as a leading economic driver in South America.

Opening the Santiago Representative Office, which is our first office in Chile, will enable MHBK to provide a wide range of financial services in close proximity to our customers. We will use this as an opportunity to unite as a group to provide robust support group to our customers that are entering and expanding their businesses in the dynamically developing Central and South American region.
