

Summary of Financial Results for the Third Quarter of FY2024 (Under Japanese GAAP)

February 3, 2025

Based on the concepts of “Feeling Energized by Art,” “Making Art More Accessible,” and “Changing yourself through Art,” Mizuho, in collaboration with Tokyo University of the Arts, contributes to social innovation, and the overcoming of social challenges like improving gender equality and people’s well-being, aiming to co-create a sustainable and abundant society in terms of its art and culture as well as its economics.

We asked students at the Tokyo University of the Arts, Department of DESIGN to give form to the ideas they took from Mizuho’s Purpose, “Proactively innovate together with our clients for a prosperous and sustainable future”. Beginning in November 2023, this marks our sixth featuring of their artwork for shareholder and investor presentations.

Title: “The highest good is like water”

This proverb, derived from Lao Tzu's "Tao Te Ching," states that the highest form of good is like water. Water benefits all things without trying to, adapts its shape to its environment, and is content at the lowest point. These qualities represent the highest good.

This piece draws on these characteristics to illustrate the fluidity and inclusiveness of Mizuho within the economy. Just as water nourishes life, smooth flow of capital and information sustains economic vitality. Like water adapts to its environment, Mizuho too adjusts to the ever-changing market, contributing to a prosperous society.

The piece features rice plants and water as motifs, rendered on a ceramic plate using blue glaze and spiraling rice stalks to symbolize vitality and perpetual circulation.
